MRS. CALLUM'S SUMMER NEWSLETTER

Summer's a great time to go to the beach, play with friends, just be lazy, or read a good book or two.

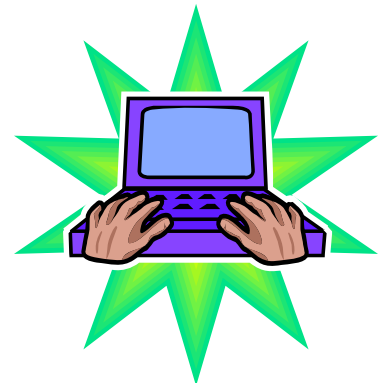

Got a rainy day? how about practicing your keyboarding skills. Knowing how to keyboard (type) properly is very important. Why? Consider this: do you spend a long time typing out homework assignments.....it would go faster if you knew how to type properly. Do you wait and wait and wait to communicate with friends via IM? Wouldn't it go a lot faster if you and your friends could type faster?! As you progress in school (high school and college) your teachers will require you to hand in all assignments typewritten. It won't take as long to complete if you could type (keyboard) fast and accurately.

Here are some fun sites to help you with your keyboarding skills. You can also find links to them on my webpage.
