GRADE SIX

As we study Ancient Greece you might be interested to read some "Springs of Greek Wisdom" Think you know what they mean?

*Happiness resides not in possessions and not in gold,
The feeling of happiness dwells in the soul.* Democritus

One must not tie a ship to a single anchor, nor life to a single hope.
Epicurus

If man is moderate and contented, then even old age is no burden; if he is not, then even youth is full of cares. Plato

If you have a wounded heart, touch it as little as you would an injured eye. There are only two remedies for the suffering of the soul:

HOPE AND PATIENCE Pythagoras

Look death in the face with joyful hope and consider this a lasting

TRUTH

*The righteous man has nothing to fear, neither in life, nor in death
And the gods will not forsake him.*

Socrates
