Helpful Websites for Parents

www.disciplinehelp.com -A behavior management website. This site provides advice for parents and teachers. The best way to navigate is to use the "view all behaviors" button, then select from the list. Each section has lots of great advice.

www.adda-sr.org/BehaviorManagementIndex.htm -This site offers tips for children with ADD. These tips can also be helpful for other students as well.

www.myrewardboard.com –This site is helpful to come up with a chore chart and a reward system to use at home. You can just get ideas or subscribe and use their material.

www.parentmagic.com –This site has many helpful kits for effective parenting solutions to many problems. The most commonly used is 1-2-3 Magic.

www.isafe.org –This site has many helpful parts. There is a section for parents called i-Parent Times that gives many helpful hints on how to keep your children safe online.

www.commonsemmedia.org – This site provides reviews and ratings on books, television shows, movies and more. A great resource for parents.

There are many websites that can be from great resources online but these selected are websites that I have read through and believe are the most helpful.
