Dear Parents,

Welcome back for another exciting school year. I am happy to be back and am looking forward to many happenings this year at St. Francis of Assisi School. I will continue to be available to help students individually and in small or large groups. Many current issues such as, bullying, internet safety, and peer pressure will be addressed; I hope to meet parents during the year to discuss these issues as well. I will also help facilitate the transition from SFA to high school and will address any crises that may occur inside or outside of school.

We have started to use a daily meeting time that I will be a part of in all of the classrooms. This is a meeting to either preview or review the school day. It helps to keep the students aware of what is happening in their classroom and in the school. This year I will also be working with the seventh grade on the "See I make all things new" curriculum. This was a program initiated by the Archdiocese last year and will be continuing.

My schedule at SFA will remain the same. I will be available at the school on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays and can be reached at 781-848-0842. I can be reached by email on Wednesdays and Thursdays as well; my email address is acraven@sfab.org. I look forward to working with you and your child. I hope you all had an enjoyable summer.
