Dear Sixth Graders,

Welcome to the sixth grade! This year you will be learning in many different ways. You and your classmates have a wealth of knowledge to share with one another, which is why we offer work in pairs and small groups.

Throughout the year, you will be asked to demonstrate what you have learned in the following types of assessments:

- Tests & Quizzes
- Classroom Assignments
- Homework Assignments
- Individual and Group Projects
- Participation within the classroom
- Extra Credit assignments (Optional)

Your sixth grade experience consists of academic but also social lessons. Respect is the key word with the Grade 6 classroom. Knowing that God wants us to be kind and loving toward one another is the Grade 6 motto. Hope you have had a fulfilling summer and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Clark
